Mr. Rockefeller advises young men to spend their youth in study.
Probably he would have them burn the midnight oil.

From the manner in which Mr.
Rockefeller inveighs against strong drink it has been suggested that he does not control the whiskey trust.

Senator Bailey judges the press of the state by himself and charges he sold out to Senator Chilton.
Senator Chilton did not need Pierce in financing his affairs.

The Dallas News' New Year's edition was a big thing in newspaper work; its 120 pages are each and every one full of interest. It is a splendid souvenir to keep for future reference.

For whatever popularity the President may lose in certain exceptionalist spots he will have a compensating gain in Southern localities where race conditions are understood.

At a recent banquet in Berlin a quid inspired orator said, that he belonged to Germany. It was very kind in the orator to admit us to his prosperity symposium.

Senator Bailey in answering State Senator Senter, says, "The Democratic doctrine is obedience or recognition, and only those are called upon to resign who fail or refuse to obey these instructions." This did not apply when Senator Bailey refused to support W. J.
Bryan, the nominee of the National Democratic party, and when he denounced Hearst, the nominee of the Democratic party of New York.

It was all right, he could make a grand stand play of independence, the "King could do no wrong." In any one else it is treason. The fact is Hearst lived in New York, kept in close touch with everything going on, got onto the facts and Senator Bailey anticipating that was liable to happen did a little hedging, that was all. If Senator Bailey had never bolted the Democratic nominee, then he could with some show of consistency attack others. The Kings in this country all stand on the same basis. It was Bryan, not Bailey, who would not have "the crown of thorns placed on the brow of Jesus."

The Real Question Confronting the Democratic Party.

There is more hidden beneath the fight now being made on Senator Bailey than appears on the surface. The efficiency of the party is at stake. The success of the Senator means putting the party back for years to come. The defeat of the Senator means putting the party forward several notches. It seems rather inconsistent in the Senator claiming such strict adherence to the party mandates, when he himself openly repudiated the nominee of the national convention, W. J. Bryan.
His reconsideration was only brought about by the persuasion of friends. His support was not enthusiastic. He next repudiated the nominee of the Democratic party of New York. Yet he prides himself on being the head of the party in the Senate. Yet when the great Democratic party of Texas had voted under a misapprehension of the real facts, facts which are vital, which in any court of justice would give the defendant a new trial. Yet he stand pat on the primaries and denounces those who wish to rectify a wrong Senator Bailey is in no position to show an unbroken Democratic record.
Leaving all this out of the question, the paramount question for the people to decide is how will the party come out of this fight?
Is not the fight now going on more injurious to the party than the gold and silver split. Will not the endorsement of Senator Bailey's own confessions prevent the Texas orators from doing duty outside the State in the next national campaign? Will it not put in the hands of the Republicans a club which every Democrat, especially from Texas, will have to dodge?
How can they explain it. The fate of the national Democratic ticket is in jeopardy because Senator Bailey has a national reputation. Under no condition can his usefulness be restored. Once suspicion is raised against any one it clings to that party throughout his life. It may be forgotten by some, but not by every one. It will often bob up in the nick of time to do the greatest harm. The supporters of Senator Bailey are too partisan to actually realize the seriousness of the conditions confronting the party. The only question the party has to answer now is which is best, to repudiate Bailey and build the party, or whitewash him and put the party out of business. The Senator confirms himself. This is an absolute fact. Therefore, anything the legislature may do short of defeating him, will be whitewashing. If he is not defeated every man is given the privilege to aid and assist the trust, and in the language of Vanderbilt, "Damn the people." Under which banner has the honest Democrat of Marion county enlisted? The people or the trust?
Choose ye this day which you will serve.

TEXAS HIT HARD.

Congressman Randall of Texas has introduced a bill in Congress preventing Senators and Congressmen from going outside to get their money. The bill is far reaching, the penalty is a fine not more than $500 and imprisonment a year and forever afterwards barring the guilty party from being employed by the government either as Senator or Congressman or otherwise. This bill is proper and right, but the disgrace comes in because the great State of Texas by its junior Senator's unfortunate connection with the Water-Pierce Oil Co. is the real cause for the introduction of such a bill. The South has heretofore prided herself that her Senators and Congressmen could not be reached by any improper methods. The "Lone Star" has heretofore had no spot on it. It had been washed clean with the blood of the greatest heroes the world ever saw, before it was given to the world, as the emblem of purity, honesty and chivalry. Every true Texan should bow his head in shame. Not only Texas should feel humiliated, but the entire South, because the South furnished the necessity for such a bill. The South can no longer point with pride to her unbroken line of unreachd statesmen. Congressman Randall should be thanked for having the nerve at this juncture to introduce such a bill. Texas should appreciate his loyalty.

Notice.

Having sold my farm I am offering for sale cheap my mules and buggy horse, milk cows, hogs, some corn fat hogs, that I will furnish to parties wanting same dressed. Will weigh from 90 to 200 pounds. Also 90 bushels of Peerless cotton seed, the earliest cotton grown, extra long staple, the kind to beat the boll weevil with. See me or write me on Onella-Arrighi Amusement Company put up their street fair show last Friday at J. J. Senter's place.

They have good, clean shows and all were well patronized Saturday and Monday, but the rain the next two days kept them from showing at all. They came to play for benefit of fire company, and the bad weather has worked very much against them. Go out and see their attractions and help the fire company by doing so.
They may remain all next week.

Nearly every person who is subject to attacks from the stomach suffers from a kind of indigestion, or for relief, that is three-fourths starvation, and one-fourth toast and milk.
On the other hand you can eat as you please and digest the food by the aid of a good digestant, thus giving the tired stomach equally as much rest. Eat what you please and take a little Kodol for indigestion after your meals. It digests what you eat. Sold by The J. F.
Crow Drug Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Adams, held a family reunion during the holidays. Their children were all here: Chas. A. Adams and family from Marshall, J. R. Adams from Ardmore, I. T., and Will T. Adams from New Orleans. They had a most pleasant time here with their parents and sister, Miss Mary.

How to Cure Chilblains.

"To enjoy freedom from chilblains," writes John Kemp, East Orléans, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure frost, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases

A CYCLOPE.

A cyclope was reported out on route 2 by carrier W. J. Hill Thursday. The cyclope occurred at 4 p. m. Wednesday at J. T. Dodd, road master of J. & N. W. road, at Lanier. His residence was badly damaged by the wind and chimneys blown down. A cabin on the place with eight negroes living in it was completely demolished and everything blown away—even the bucket blown out of the well and could not be found. No one hurt but a girl whose leg was injured.
It is a miracle that some were not killed. The storm was about 200 yards wide. A rattle on the railroad is reported blown down. The storm done more damages that we have not learned.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at W. J. Sedberry's drug store. Price 50c.

The New Warehouse.

The Farmers' Union new cotton warehouse was completed the past week and received by the president, H. D. Hall. The house will store 2,500 bales of cotton and the cost to erect it was $2,500. Public weigher L. C. Pruitt will weigh for the warehouse. President Hall informs us that there is much cotton waiting to be stored in the house by members of the union.
We are glad that Jefferson has secured this warehouse.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated.
Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restoring natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. F. Crow Drug Co.

1907 is Here. What Will You Do With It?

It brings with it 365 days. Will you use each day as a round in your ladder of success? Think and plan carefully the work of each and every day. Resolve to be a better and more useful man or woman. The world needs better and stronger men and women. Every individual should feel that he is a link in the great chain of progress, and that he owes it to his Maker to develop his full strength in the upbuilding of a greater nation and a greater people, a people who realize there is a hereafter and that true success is based on honesty and square dealing. It is the duty of every one to launch out on life's great sea full of determination, energy and push. Do something. Do it well.

a greater nation and a greater people, a
great sea full of determination, energy
and push. Do something. Do it well.
Prepare to accumulate wealth honestly from the great resources that are placed about you. Our Creator would never have filled the earth with innumerable treasures and cover it over with fertile soil, had he not intended that man develop his full strength in the upbuilding of a greater nation and a greater people, a
